Bundaberg Central State School Newsletter

Issue 15. Monday May 19th, 2014

 Principals Message.

Hello Everyone,

Today is our first Quadrennial School Review Meeting. Once again, thank you to those who have volunteered to be a part of the committee. Each newsletter we will report to you how we are progressing and anything that you may be able to help us with.

Jewellery, Accessories and Toys

There are more and more students wearing jewellery and accessories and bringing toys to school. Our school rule says that this is not to happen. Please don’t allow your children to bring things to school. We would hate for them to be injured or for their possessions to be lost. If your child is wearing something for a religious reason, please send in a note or contact your child's teacher.

NAPLAN

We are all very proud of the students efforts during the NAPLAN tests last week. Thank you to them. The results don’t come back until Term 4.

Chappy Week

This week is Chappy Week. A time when we can acknowledge the hard work and dedication that our Chappy Evan puts into our school. All chaplains are hardworking and deserve to be acknowledged. Tomorrow there is a Chappy Breakfast at the Civic Centre. When you see Chappy Evan .... Don’t forget to say Happy Chappy Week Chappy Evan.

Thank you Marie Hillyard.
Change of morning routine

Children will now sit on the veranda until 8.30am in the mornings when all classrooms will be open for students to enter and get ready for the school day. Please do not bring children to school before this time. Only four families have indicated that their children need to be at school early because of work commitments. These children go into the Library as soon as they arrive for their safety. Once students are at school they are not to be in the front yard area or under E block. This is for their safety.

Hello my name is Luwanna or as the children call me, Miss Fatiaki.

I am the new Teacher Aide/Indigenous Liaison officer. My main role is to support the learning of your child’s education.

NAIDOC is the main focus around the indigenous side of my job at the moment and I am hoping to see families take part in the National NAIDOC march this year held on the Friday 19th of July.

This special week is to celebrate the History, Culture and Achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. This Year’s NAIDOC theme is Serving and Country: Centenary & beyond so our banner for the march will be based around this theme. I have a colouring competition for Kindy-year2 and a short story writing competition to write the lyrics to Rap. Title-RESPECT (Respect of Indigenous Australians, Culture and each other) from years 3-6.

I am very excited that Central School will be part of the march this year and can’t wait to see our uniforms through the main street with our banner! I look forward to meeting all the new faces I haven’t yet met at such a wonderful school.

The student council have Popcorn for sale on Monday after school. 50 cents a bag.

Premiers’ Reading Challenge starts 20th May

18th—25th May Chappy Week

23rd May Walk safely to school day

29th May Show Holiday

Happy Chappy Week Everyone

So what is Chappy Week? It is a week when we celebrate the support that chaplain’s give the school community. As part of the celebrations this year I am planning a boot camp during the second break on Tuesday 20th of May on the school oval. I hope that we have as many students there as possible to participate in this program. I am loving being involved in this school and helping to support the students in my chaplaincy role. If you have any questions or concerns please don’t hesitate to talk to me at school.

Thanks,
Chappy Evan

Bundaberg Careers Expo
Tuesday 27th May,
Civic Centre, 4:00–6:00pm
Free- All parents, students and the general public welcome

Even though the weather is getting a bit cooler, children still need to wear a hat while being outdoors on the oval so as to protect them.

Students of Central have been rewarded for some wonderful work within and out of the classroom.

Premiers’ Reading Challenge.

Children will get their forms this Wednesday so they can start reading and filling them in.

Some classes will keep them at school. Ask your child if they have a form, if not see Mrs Bradford.

Thank you.

Jarvis received 3 awards this week. He was responsible and worked extremely hard in class. Well done.
